

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Mr. Pish Featured in FIDO Friendly Magazine

The Traveling Terrier Makes the Top 50

Marsing, ID, July 12, 2011 - Mr. Pish, the adventurous traveling terrier, has been selected by FIDO Friendly Magazine as one of the top 50 in the world of dogs. In the celebratory 50th issue (July/August 2011), the Washington State resident is featured because of his talents as an explorer.

“Exploration is one of the keys to outside learning,” says his ‘human,’ award-winning author K. S. Brooks. “Mr. Pish enjoys promoting outdoor learning and literacy. We’re honored not only to have been considered but to have actually been selected for the golden anniversary issue.”

Mr. Pish can also be found in print in his own children’s book, writing postcards as he travels across the USA and Canada. Postcards from Mr. Pish was released in June 2010 and immediately became a big hit in elementary school classrooms across the country. Mr. Pish’s next installment, Mr. Pish’s Woodland Adventure, is due out later this summer.
